

New Evidence Condens Sox; "Grid" Teams Ready

FELSCH WON LARGE SUMS BY BETS AT TREMENDOUS ODDS

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 1.—New evidence which may warrant criminal prosecution of the baseball players involved in the "fixing" of the 1919 world series was expected by the grand jury today when state's attorney Mackoy Hays arrived from New York. August Haysman, president of the Cincinnati Reds, was expected to testify today, and Alfred S. Lustrin, attorney for the White Sox, announced that he believed more players were ready to tell what they knew.

Evidence Not Known.
The nature of the new evidence which Hays says he obtained in New York is not known. He would only say, before leaving for Chicago, that he obtained the information from two men who are neither baseball men nor gamblers, and who have not yet been mentioned in the inquiry. He also asserted that he had no evidence to show that the coming 1920 world series had been "fixed."

Witness of Several Players may be called before the grand jury. Mrs. Claude Williams testified she knew some runners were directed at her, but denied that she had ever bet on a baseball, or knew anything of the "fixing" of the 1919 series.

Reports said to emanate from members of the White Sox team credit "Happy" Felsch with having placed $100,000, accepted as a bribe from the gamblers, as a bet on Cincinnati in the second game of the series. It is claimed he wired his wife in Milwaukee to come to Chicago for the first game here, and that when she met him his greetings were to lose $15,000 in winnings on the table.

Had a Disagreement.
There are various accounts as to what followed. The players said the couple had a disagreement over the affair, but later were reconciled. The money was said to have been withdrawn from a savings bank last Monday. Mrs. Felsch is expected to be asked by the grand jury what she knows of the transaction.

The new body must be nationalwide in scope, include in power and composed of men so prominent and reputable that their very names will be a guarantee to the fans that there will be no place for a dishonest player or promoter in the national pastime, Hendler declared.

The movement to form a new body is already under way, he said, and will take form as soon as the world series is completed.

Scrappy Dick Griffin Here Starts Training For Match

JUST as confident as he was when in training for his first meeting with Gene Payo, Dick Griffin, Ft. Worth feather star, will begin training tomorrow afternoon for his return meeting with the El Paso crack over the 13 round, rope on next Thursday night.

Griffin is in tip top condition. He has had one bout since last appearing in El Paso and he won this easily. Jack Doyle, of Denver, was the victim, the bout occurring at Amarillo, Texas. Pet Brown, middleweight champion wrestler met a rival wrangler in a preliminary to the Griffin-Doyle go and won this bout also. Doyle is recognized as one of the fastest of western bantams, and Griffin's easy victory over the rugged Denverite only serves to further emphasize the fighting qualities of the brilliant little Texan.

Has Something to Say.
He has been pretty busy since arriving in the city visiting friends and so on but Friday Dick had some words to say about his meeting with Ralph Lincoln.

"I had to fight Lincoln carefully because he is one of the cleverest men I have ever faced," he asserted. "I realize that I did not put up the fight I did with the Petro boys, but I believe I am entitled to some credit in view of the fact that I led continually. Lincoln was knocked out lightweights. I certainly was not afraid to take a chance as all of my friends can testify after the Gene Payo fight. You just watch the fur fly when I meet Lincoln."

WORLD SERIES RUNS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Sixteen world series have been played since the first meeting between National and American league clubs in 1903. NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Manager W. Herbert Robinson, who for the second time in five years has led the Brooklyn National league club's players successfully as pennant winners to be contestants for the world series championship struggle, was born at Hudson, Mass., 26 years ago. For 26 years Robinson has been identified with the national game. Away back in 1891 he was catcher for the Haverhill, Mass. team for which at that time John Kinney was one of the club's pitching staff. During 1911 and the following season Tene and Robinson proved to be a very effective battery.
